

Woking Speakers Club

Privacy Policy

Woking Speakers Toastmasters Club cares about privacy. This notice explains how the club collects your personal data, how it is used, the conditions under which the data may be disclosed to others and how it's kept secure

Our club holds personal information for the purpose of running the club and the benefit of members and guests. We work to ensure that the data is held in compliance with all appropriate data regulations, the Data Protection Act 1998, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Data Protection Bill 2017-2019.

Below is a summary of what information we hold, where it is held, who has access to it and why. We work to ensure that anybody we share the data with treats it appropriately.

If you have any concerns or questions please contact the committee at memberships.woking@gmail.com

Who is in charge

Woking Speakers a social club run by members for the benefit of members. It is closely associated with Toastmasters International (TMI), a non-for-profit organisation based in the USA.

The club is managed by an elected committee that may consist of:

- President
- VP Education
- VP Membership
- VP Public Relations
- Treasurer
- Club Secretary

The committee can be contacted via our email account memberships.woking@gmail.com

What information we collect

We ask for different information about you depending on your relationship with the club. Below are the key relationships and the information collected for each one.

Guest Information

From visiting guests we ask for name and email address only (guests are not required to provide this information). This information is not shared outside of the committee, and is purely held for following up on your experience at the club and informing you about future meeting and about membership and joining the club.

If you are registered at www.toastmasterclub.org and are doing a role at a meeting (such as General Evaluator or a Guest Speaker) we will also request your EasySpeak username so you can be added to our agenda (on EasySpeak at <http://wokingspeakers.toastmasterclub.org>)

Prospective Members

If after visiting our club a guest decides to join, then we will collect:

- Full Name
- Email Address
- Postal Address
- Gender (Male / Female / Other)
- Phone numbers (mobile/home)

This information will be captured and shared with Toastmasters International (TMI) and their web portal at www.toastmasters.org. For full participation in activities of the club it is necessary to join Toastmasters International (TMI). Our VP of Membership will assist you with paperwork or electronic form that is needed to join TMI, registration with TMI and payment of membership dues.

Club Members

After becoming a member, we will create an account for you on EasySpeak (<https://toastmasterclub.org/>), which allow you to schedule your club meeting speeches and roles and to be kept up to date with club news. If you are a member of another Toastmasters club we will link your membership to that account. EasySpeak is a shared resource between the clubs you belong to and you. You can see, update and delete the information as needed within your 'My Profile' section of the website at <https://toastmasterclub.org/profile.php?mode=editprofile> .

We retain the information collected from you when you were a prospective member. We track information such as your mentors and your mentees and progress with educational programme and participation in club activities, including your voting on club matters during elections and throughout the year.

Award Winners and Club Officers

If you are elected a club officer or happens to win an award, we would like to take a photo at award handover. As a club we would like to share such photos with club members, guests and others interested in the club through e-mails and social media. If you do not provide consent for such use of your photo. We will do that only if you provide an explicit consent for our use of your photo in such way.

Children

Membership and participation in club activities is open to adults aged 18+ only. We do not sell, offer or provide any services to children. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children below 18.

Website Visitors

Our website at <http://www.wokingspeakers.org.uk/> does not collection personal information form users and does not use cookies.

Who has access to your information

As a club we work on protecting your personal data. One of measures is limiting access to your data to club committee members and functionaries that need to know it for performing their role such as:

- A Contest Chair (the contact details of the contestants)
- A Mentor/Mentee (the contact details of their Mentee/Mentor respectively)
- A special event organiser.

We also share information with several third parties (such as TMI and EasySpeak) as detailed below.

Where the club stores data
